ESCALANTE MAGIC MOUNTAIN TRIP INFORMATION

The following basic information is designed to assist you in getting ready for a day of fun at the amusement park. Please read this guide carefully, as it will provide the necessary advice for a trouble free experience.

CLOTHING

As weather can and will vary, it is very important to be prepared for any kind of conditions. The following list should be considered the minimum requirements for a comfortable day of rides

- Light jacket or sweat shirt for evening
-  Sunglasses/hats
- Waterproof personal items (money, cell phones etc. for water rides)
- Change of Clothes for the park, you will be sweating all day. Have pajamas/comfortable clothes for the ride there and back.
- Plenty of Water and snacks (can be kept in a rental storage locker in the park)
-  Shorts/pants with pockets to carry your money works best. Back packs for water/disposable cameras/sunblock. Do not carry $$ in your back packs. Most rides will not let you on with backpacks.
- Change or $$ for Storage Lockers. It's best to partner with others in your group to keep cost down.
- Blankets and Pillows for the bus rides (It can get super cold with AC on)
- Locks on your backpacks are best to secure your personal items that will be left on bus (i.e. cd players, ipods, games etc)

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY CODE

Safety is a primary concern and responsibility for all participants. In order to make everyone's experience the best it can be, all individuals must agree to abide by the responsibility code. The major points are:

- *Dress appropriately i.e. comfortable clothes, hats, sneakers or comfortable shoes (flip flops will be asked to be taken off during rides)
- *No cutting lines
- *Always stay with chaperones
- *Take care of your own items and respect other participants' items - turn in all lost and found items to chaperones.
- *Observe all posted signs and warnings. Keep off closed areas.
- *Abide all park rules.
- *It will be important to sleep on the way to Magic Mountain. You will have a miserable day if you don't get enough sleep.
